How conspiracy theorizing may soon get you labelled a 'Domestic Terrorist'

Conspiracies for good and for evil do exist now, as they have from time immemorial. The only question is which intention do you want to devote your life towards?

Matthew Ehret

If you are starting to feel like forces controlling the governments of the west are out to get you, then it is likely that you are either a paranoid nut job, or a stubborn realist.

Either way, it means that you have some major problems on your hands.

If you don't happen to find yourself among the tinfoil hat-wearing strata of conspiracy theorists waiting in a bunker for aliens to either strike down or save society from the shape shifting lizard people, but are rather contemplating how, in the 1960s, a shadow government took control of society over the dead bodies of many assassinated patriots, then certain conclusions tend to arise.

THREE ELEMENTARY REALIZATIONS FOR THINKING PEOPLE

The first conclusion you would likely arrive at is that the United States government was just put through the first coup in over 58 years (yes, what happened in 1963 was a coup).

Although it is becoming a bit prohibitive to speak such words aloud in polite society, Nancy Pelosi's official biographer Molly Ball, recently penned a scandalous Time Magazine article entitled 'The Secret History of the Shadow Campaign that Saved the 2020 Elections' which admitted to this conspiracy saying:

“ Even though it sounds like a paranoid fever dream- a well-funded cabal of powerful people, ranging across industries and ideologies, working together behind the scenes to influence perceptions, change rules and laws, steer media coverage and control the flow of information.”

(Lest you think that this was a subversion of democracy, Ball informs us that “they were not rigging the election; they were fortifying it.”)

Another conclusion you might come to is that many of the political figures whom you believed were serving those who elected them into office, actually serve the interests of a clique of technocrats and billionaires lusting over the deconstruction of western civilization under something called “a Great Reset”.

Where this was brushed off as an unfounded conspiracy theory not long ago, even Canada's Deputy Prime Minister (and neo-Nazi supporting Rhodes Scholar) Chrystia Freeland decided to become a Trustee of the World Economic Forum just weeks ago. In this role, Freeland joins fellow Oxford technocrat Mark Carney in their mutual endeavor to be a part of the new movement to decarbonize civilization and make feudalism cool again.

Lastly, you might notice that your having arrived at these conclusions is itself increasingly becoming a form of thought-crime punishable in a variety of distasteful ways, elaborated by a series of unprecedented new emergency regulations that propose extending the definition of "terrorism".

Those implicated under the new definition will be those broad swaths of citizens of western nations who don't agree with the operating beliefs of the ruling oligarchy.

Already a 60 day review of the US military is underway to purge the armed forces of all such "thought criminals" while McCarthyite legislation has been drafted to cleanse all government jobs of "conspiracy theorists".

Another startling announcement from the National Terrorism Advisory Bulletin that domestic terrorists include:

“ideologically-motivated violent extremists with objections to the exercise of governmental authority [and] perceived grievances fueled by false narratives.”

While not yet fully codified into law (though it will be if not nipped in the bud soon), you can be sure that things are certainly moving fast as, before our very eyes, the right to free speech is being torn to shreds by means of censorship across social media and the internet, cancelling all opinions deemed unacceptable to the ruling class.

THE CONSPIRACY TO SUBVERT CONSPIRACY THEORIZING

This should not come as a surprise, as Biden's new addition to the Department of Homeland Security is a bizarre figure named Cass Sunstein who famously described exactly what this was going to look like in his infamous 2008 report 'Conspiracy Theories' (co-authored with Harvard Law School's Adrien Vermeule).

In this under-appreciated study, the duo foresaw the greatest threat to the ruling elite took the form of "conspiracy theorizing" within the American population using as examples of this delusion: the idea that the government had anything to do with the murders of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King Jr, or the planning and execution of 9-11.

Just to be clear, conspiracy literally means 'two or more people acting together in accord with an agreed-upon idea and intention'.

The fact that Vermeule has made a legal career arguing that laws should be interpreted not by the "intentions" of lawgivers, but rather according to cost-benefit analysis gives us a useful insight into the deranged mind of a technocrat and the delusional reasoning that denies the very thing which has shaped literally ALL of human history.

“...the existence of both domestic and foreign conspiracy theories, we suggest, is no trivial matter, posing real risks to the government’s antiterrorism policies, whatever the latter may be.”

After establishing his case for the threat of conspiracies, Sunstein says that “the best response consists in cognitive infiltration of extremist groups”.

Not one to simply draw criticisms, the pro-active Sunstein laid out five possible strategies which the social engineers managing the population could deploy to defuse this growing threat saying:

- 1 “Government might ban conspiracy theorizing.”
- 2 “Government might impose some kind of tax, financial or otherwise, on those who disseminate such theories.”
- 3 “Government might itself engage in counter speech, marshaling arguments to discredit conspiracy theories.”
- 4 “Government might formally hire credible private parties to engage in counter speech.
- 5 “Government might engage in informal communication with such parties, encouraging them to help”.

(I'll let you think about which of these prescriptions were put into action over the ensuing 12 years.)

Cass Sunstein was particularly sensitive to this danger largely because: 1) he was a part of a very ugly conspiracy himself and 2) he is a world-renowned behaviorist.

THE PROBLEM OF REALITY FOR BEHAVIORISTS

As an economic behaviorist and lawyer arguing that all “human rights” should be extended to animals (blurring the line separating human dynamics from the law of the jungle as any fascist must), Sunstein has spent decades trying to model human behavior with computer simulations in an effort to “scientifically manage” such behavior.

As outlined in his book Nudge (co-authored with Nobel Prize winning behaviorist Richard Thaler), Sunstein “discovered” that people tend to organize their behavioral patterns around certain fundamental drives, such as the pursuit of pleasure, avoidance of pain, and certain Darwinian drives for sex, popularity, desire for conformity, desire for novelty, and greed.

One of the key principles of economic behaviorism which is seen repeated in such popular manuals as Freakonomics, Nudge, Predictably Irrational, The Wisdom of Crowds, and Animal Spirits, is that humans are both biologically determined due to their Darwinian impulses, but, unlike other animals, have the fatal flaw of being fundamentally irrational at their core.

Since humans are fundamentally irrational, says the behaviorist, it is requisite that an enlightened elite impose "order" upon society while maintaining the illusion of freedom of choice from below.

This is the underlying assumption of Karl Popper's Open Society doctrine, which was fed to Popper's protégé George Soros and which animates Soros' General Theory of Reflexivity and his Oxford-based Institute for New Economic Thinking (INET).

This was at the heart of Obama's science Czar John Holdren's call for world government in his 1977 Ecoscience (co-written with his mentor Paul Ehrlich) where the young misanthrope envisioned a future utopic world governed by a scientifically managed master-class saying:

“ Perhaps those agencies, combined with UNEP and the United Nations population agencies, might eventually be developed into a Planetary Regime- sort of an international superagency for population, resources, and environment. Such a comprehensive Planetary Regime could control the development, administration, conservation, and distribution of all natural resources, renewable or nonrenewable”.

The caveat: If Darwinian impulses mixed with irrational “animal spirits” were truly all that animated those systems which behaviorists wish to map and manipulate (aka: “nudge” with rewards, punishments), then a scientific priesthood would indeed be a viable and perhaps necessary way to organize the world.

Fortunately, reality is a bit more elegant and dignified than behaviorists wish to admit.

WHY COMPUTER MODELLERS HATE METAPHYSICS

On a closer inspection of history, we find countless instances where people shape their individual and group behavior around sets of ideas that transcend controllable material impulses. When this happens, those individuals or groups tend to resist adapting to environments created for them.

This incredible phenomenon is witnessed empirically in the form of the American Revolution, Warsaw Ghetto Uprisings, Civil Rights movements, and even some bold manifestations of anti-lockdown protests now underway around the world.

Among the most troublesome of those variables which upset computer models are: “Conscience”, “Truth”, “Intentions”, “Soul”, “Honor”, “God”, “Justice”, “Patriotism”, “Dignity”, and “Freedom”.

Whenever individuals shape their identities around these very real, though immaterial (aka: “metaphysical”) principles, they cannot be “nudged” towards pre-determined decisions that defy reason and morality.

Adherence to these principles also tends to afford thinking people an important additional edge of creative insight necessary to cut through false explanatory narratives that attempt to hide lies behind the appearance of truth (aka: sophistry).

As witnessed on multiple occasions throughout history, such individuals who value the health of their souls over the intimidating (and extremely malleable) force of popular opinion, will often decide to sacrifice personal comfort and even their lives in order to defend those values which their minds and consciences deem important.

These rare, but invaluable outliers will often resist policies that threaten to undo their freedoms or undermine the basis of their society's capacity to produce food, and energy for their children and grandchildren.

What is worse, is that their example is often extremely contagious causing other members of the sheep class to believe that they too are human and endowed with unalienable rights which should be defended.

THE INTENTIONS ORDERING WORLD HISTORY

Perhaps, most “destructive” of all is that these outlier people tend to look for abstract things like “causes” in historical dynamics shaping the context of their present age, as well as their current geopolitical environment.

Whenever this type of thinking is done, carefully crafted narratives fed to the masses by an enlightened elite will often fail in their powers to persuade, since seekers after truth soon come to realize that IDEAS and intentions (aka: conspiracies) shape our past, present and future.

When the dominating intentions shaping society's trajectory is in conformity with Natural Law, humanity tends to improve, freedoms increase, culture matures and evil loses its hold. Inversely, when the intentions animating history are out of conformity with Natural Law, the opposite happens as societies lose their moral and material fitness to survive and slip ever more quickly into dark ages.

While sitting in a jail in Birmingham Alabama in 1963, Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. described this reality eloquently when he said:

“ A just law is a man-made code that squares with the moral law or the law of God. An unjust law is a code that is out of harmony with the moral law. Any law that uplifts human personality is just. Any law that degrades human personality is unjust... One has not only a legal but a moral responsibility to obey just laws. Conversely one has a moral responsibility to disobey unjust laws.”

From Plato's organization of his Academy and efforts to shape a Philosopher King to beat the forces of the Persian Empire, to Cicero's efforts to save the Roman Republic, to Augustine's battles to save the soul of Christianity all the way to our present age, conspiracies for the good and counter-conspiracies for evil have shaped history.

If one were to begin an investigation into history without an understanding that ideas and intentions caused the trajectory of history, as is the standard practice among history professors dominant in today's world, then one would become incapable of understanding anything essential about one's own reality.

It is irrelevant that behaviorists and other fascists wish their victims to believe that history just happens simply because random short-sighted impulses kinetically drive events on a timeline- the truth of my claim exists for any serious truth seeker to discover it for themselves.

BACK TO OUR PRESENT SAD STATE OF AFFAIRS

Now we all know that Sunstein spent the following years working as Obama's Regulatory Czar alongside an army of fellow behaviorists who took control of all levers of policy making as outlined by Time Magazine's April 13, 2009 article 'How Obama is Using the Science of Change'.

As the fabric of western civilization, and traditional values of family, gender, and even macro-economic concepts like "development" were degraded during this period, the military-industrial complex had a field day as Sunstein's wife Samantha Power worked closely with Susan Rice in the promotion of "humanitarian bombings" of small nations under Soros' Responsibility to Protect doctrine.

After the Great Reset Agenda was announced in June 2020, Sunstein was recruited to head the propaganda wing of the World Health Organization known as the WHO Technical Advisory Group where his skills in mass behavior modification were put to use in order to counteract the dangerous spread of conspiracy theories that persuaded large chunks of the world population that COVID-19 was part of a larger conspiracy to undermine national sovereignty and impose world government.

“ In the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, countries are using a range of tools to influence behavior: Information campaigns are one tool, but so are laws, regulations, guidelines and even fines...That’s why behavioral science is so important.”

Today, hundreds of Obama-era behaviorists have streamed back into influential positions of government under the new “scientifically managed”, evidence-based governance coming back to life under Biden promising to undo the dark days of President Trump.

Ideologues who have been on record calling for world government, the elimination of the sick and elderly (see Obamacare architect Ezekiel Emmanuel’s Why I Hope to Die At 75), and population control are streaming back into positions of influence. If you think that anything they have done to return to power is unlawful, or antithetical to the principles of the Constitution, then these technocrats want you to know that you are a delusional conspiracy theorist and as such, represent a potential threat to yourself and the society of which you are but a part.

If you question World Health Organization narratives on COVID-19, or doubt the use of vaccines produced by organizations like Astra Zeneca due to their ties to eugenics organizations then you are a delusional conspiracy theorist.

If you doubt that global warming is caused by carbon dioxide or that implementing the Paris Climate accords may cause more damage to humanity than climate change ever could, then you must be a conspiracy theorist.

If you believe that the US government just went through a regime change coordinated by something called “the deep state”, then you run the risk of being labelled a delusional threat to “the general welfare” deserving of the sort of treatment dolled out to any typical terrorist.

It appears that the many comforts we have taken for granted over the past 50-year drunken stupor called “globalization” are quickly coming to an end, and thankfully not one but two opposing intentions for what the new operating system will be are actively vying for control. This clash was witnessed in stark terms during the January 2021 Davos Summit, where Xi Jinping and Putin’s call for a new system of win-win cooperation, multipolarity and long-term development offset the unipolar zero-sum ideologues of the west seeking to undo the foundations of industrial civilization.

Either way you look at it, conspiracies for good and for evil do exist now, as they have from time immemorial. The only question is which intention do you want to devote your life towards?

"Government might itself engage in counter speech, marshaling arguments to discredit conspiracy theories."

This is being done on this forum as we speak by the many trolls and has been done for the last two decades. Those who control the internet have gone much further than this. Lots of forums have just disappeared and many others have been "sanitised" beyond recognition. This trend has clearly intensified since 2018. Obviously the green signal for history's greatest psyop had been given about three years ago.

CERN opened a door way to a different dimension and let in demonic spirits to our realm. These demonic entities have taken over the Earth's life force with a dark energy. The human collaborators have been promised wealth, power, the elixir of youth perhaps from these beings. They are all about death and suffering, they gain sustenance from human misery. After this year I find this the most plausible answer to our present woes.

"Looking ahead, Professor Whitty said Covid should end up being as manageable as influenza in the future, with the disease remaining squashed most of the year and only rearing its head in winter".

So it was flu all along. Who'd have thought, eh.....what a palava, for SFA.

I'm down with the cools kids, this sounds perfectly reasonable

Looking forward to them takling the CS types that believe 'their Government gives a fuck about them', and that the response to the Pandemic really is the outcome of 10yrs+ planning by the UK/NHS/Who/EU and not some 'Pearl Harbour' moment/oppourtunity that the WEF and their ilk have had wet dreams about.

It is amazing that the truth can not be shared but a lie can be promoted. Those in power have only one answer to kill whoever does not wish to partake of their lies. All the wealth in the world will not change that one day they will die. When they do then they will face the Lord Jesus that rose from the dead. But then only the truth will matter for where they spend eternity.

We are not really in the realms of conspiracy theory, my main objections are to endemic levels of corruption that have grown steadily since 1980 under lax regulations resulting from neoliberalism which has exploded since the GFC when bailing out the banks gave them, markets and the entire financial system carte blanche to do whatever the hell they want and authorities would always look the other way.

Transnational corporations have since captured governments, NGOs, health services, education systems, media etc. in what can only be described as a truly globalist incarnation of fascism building toward technocratic totalitarian surveillance states where our own homes eventually become penal or reform institutions in the complete politicization and elimination of the private sphere. They have managed to achieve all of this for a tiny amount of money in the way of funding, grants and donations to institutions which need to be publicly funded if they could be expected to retain any real scientific and educational integrity.

The attacks are now coming on so many different fronts that it seems impossible to resist. Everything is justified according to the iron law of T.I.N.A. There is no alternative to reducing CO2 emissions. There is no alternative to technological progress and we must accept 5g and with it unfettered AI and surveillance technologies. There is no alternative to Covid vaccinations, there is no alternative to lockdowns and putting as much competition from non-essential SMEs out of business as possible. There is no alternative to continuously bailing out financial institutions. There is no alternative to globalization and a global corporate controlled government. There is no alternative but to fully comply with all the demands of the fascist global state in the West.

Excellent comment! "There is no alternative to progress," as you rightly point out, is at the heart of our misfortune. The religious belief – held by nearly all mainstream intellectuals and pushed on us in real life – that we are embarked on a necessary trip towards an imagined golden age and that everything must be put at the service of that endeavour. It is a noble aim, but it will only lead to our demise, if we do not connect with our humanity which has been, is, and will be forever identical to itself.

They didn't really bail them out,..they threw a heap of money at them which I suspect was to buy them time to organise how to plunder for their future and make it all look like something else's fault...hence covid chaos...

China doesn't seem to be having this problem ...they are busy buying up what is left of any available resources while the western soc mob are fretting about wokeness and covid..thus the future doesn't look too fright for all those who have gone along with this and sadly we also get dragged along too.

Great analysis in many ways but Xi Jinping and Putin are not opposing the Covid scam – anything but – so I don't think they can be put forward as advocates for a different future for humanity. If anything, what is happening is the global adoption of the surveillance-based Chinese totalitarian model under Xi Jinping.

Yeah, but the also approaching Planet XI is going to smack into Planet X from the side. From the debris we will have Moon XIX and Moon XXX around Jupiter, and biotrails emanating from Saturn's rings.

And as for Pluto, the outcome will be awful. Its application to become a planet will again be rejected by the hidden masters (no-one may "say their names") causing Pluto to vanish in a constipated huff and reappear as a multitude of emotionally shattered planetlets somewhere in the outskirts of the Andromeda Galaxy.

When this last happened, giants walked on the earth causing Noah to flood his pants.

I know this is true because Taurus has been making non-species advances to Aries. Pisces says that is fishy.

In short, you guessed it: it is even worse than you thought! I suggest you start panicking. Now!

For those who find the idea that China is a fake foe, a manufactured Eastasia, here's some of the evidence that points in that direction:

- 1) Although China was never formally colonised it was heavily penetrated by the West in the C19th. China lost the Opium Wars (at least one of which was launched on a probable false flag) and had to allow Western access.
  - 2) Mao went to school at "the Yale of the East". Yale is of course the home the Skull 'n' Bones.
  - 3) The OSS armed the Chinese Communists in WW2. This may have been on an "the enemy's enemy is my friend" basis but...
  - 4) George Marshall went to China in 1947 and cut off arms-funding for Chiang Kai-Shek. This virtually handed China to Communism.
  - 5) Mao instituted policies like 'The Great Leap Forward' that were so insanely murderous it beggars belief that they were just products of incompetence. They make more sense as deliberate population reduction.
  - 6) Chinese Communism's most famous policy of One Child was entirely congruent with the population control policies of the global elite.
  - 7) David Rockefeller just loved Mao's China:
- <https://www.nytimes.com/1973/08/10/archives/from-a-china-traveler.html>
- 8) China appears to have been used a laboratory to trial parts of the imminent NWO agenda e.g. social credit.

Apparently it was discussed by (I think) the royal institute of foreign affairs (or some such inane think tank) in a summit in Sydney Australia in 1937 that China was to become the factory of the world. The fix has been in for a long time.

Legislation needs to be introduced banning the possession of face masks. It is a very serious crime of conspiracy to perpetuate a holocaust. Small numbers for personal use should carry a 5 year sentence where as larger numbers for distribution should carry a life sentence with no possibility of release. There is no right to possess these since to do so is aiding and abetting in a holocaust. They must be strictly banned with harsh penalties for violations along with other components of the weapon such as other forms of PPE, plastic screens in shops, 'tests', 'vaccines', white coats etc. It is a heinous crime like the wearing of a swastika that was previously banned in Germany and carries a three year prison sentence.

ECHOES OF UN WORLD CONCERT OF APRIL 2020: ‘WE WILL RISE!’

‘A NEW WORLD ORDER BEHIND CLOSED DOORS — THE STORM WILL PASS, WE WILL SURVIVE’

In a joint article published on Tuesday across leading news platforms, the signatories said that the coronavirus pandemic had been a "stark and painful reminder that nobody is safe until everyone is safe".

World leaders call for new international treaty to improve pandemic response:

- the treaty would be rooted in the WHO Constitution.
- crisis exposed inequalities in societies, geopolitical fault lines and frayed trust in public institutions.
- build resilience to pandemics and other global health emergencies.
- robust national and global preparedness systems.
- ensure timely and equitable access to pandemic countermeasures, including vaccines.
- support sustainable funding and capacity for prevention, detection, and responses to outbreaks.
- and promote mutual trust.

UK PM Bozo: No government can address the threat of pandemics alone – we must come together (joint article).

Alex Thomson: this is the UN calling for supra-national government. It remains treasonous in many countries. In Europe it failed because of overreach. This is the latest attempt, using the pandemic. This will be a commissariat at the centre, dictating to presidents, politicians and judges.

(See attacks on organized religion in part two).

UK GOV MIN ROBERT JENRICK: “A VERY LOW LEVEL”.

Julia Hartley-Brewer: “What level must we get Covid down to until we are prepared to live with it — it’s not zero, what’s the number? Has the government discussed the number and is not telling us?”

Housing Secretary Robert Jenrick MP: “We have to keep it very low... but we’re not there yet... Cases are falling but they are not as low as we’d like them to be.”

Alex Thomson: Why is a housing minister put forward for such an interview? This is the Napoleonic theory of joint ministerial responsibility, instead of the common law concept of individual responsibility under which a minister should represent the people and do his job, or resign.

ANARCHO-TYRANNY AND THE LAW OF THE LAND

Under the common law system, one is free to do whatever one wishes unless the law says otherwise. But these laws are Napoleonic. They give us permissions to do certain things. They say that we can do nothing unless we have permission to do it.”

Alex Thomson: two cheers for Karen Bradley. Back before she was appointed Theresa May’s N. Ireland minister, she admitted she was ignorant of Northern Irish politics, for which she deserves kudos not ridicule. She is something of a libertarian.

Cf. Lenny Henry, how pleasant it is to be a celebrity espousing a cause that's not only vastly well-funded and well publicised but is in fact the single monomaniacal matter of the moment as decided by the centres of power above. And note his point: Don't trust the public around you, don't trust your own community, don't trust any alternative points of view (i.e. the very alternative points of view that make real science possible) but just believe in “the facts” – this latter apparently an unproblematic matter which, in reality, consists of carefully edited snippets backed by waves of hysteria mongering.

Taling about the 2020 general election as a coup is stretching things a bit. There's vast amounts of dark money washing around our politics, shaping opinion, mobilizing people, lobbying representatives and generally making sure that elections go the way that the money would like. This is the reason why I refer to these actors as 'sponsors' — many of our elected representatives are owned almost to the point of being covered in logos like a sports figure. What happened in 2020 was merely that 'the other side' used a more conventional form of organization to ensure that the election represented the will of the people. More or less. This might have upset the dark money which is why we're getting such authrotiative sources waxing about 'the 2020 coup' and 'the steal' and so on but I think we now know that there was no such thing. Sunlight is a powerful disinfectant.

(One of the weird aspects of modern life is that a substantial number of people think that billionaires — and their mouthpices — care about their freedom.)

The fact that people still cling to debunked theories, developing even more far out ones as the initial ones fail to pan out, is proof of just how persuasive this entire operation has been on large sections of the global electorate. The anti-vaccine people have got increasingly strident as the level of vaccination rises, the infection rates drop and people seem to be gradually emerging back to life as we used to know it. The latest 'reall big deal' is so-called vaccine passports. Its all about control, restricting freedom and so on, but a glance back to the not too distant past will show you that you couldn't travel to many countries without proof of vaccination against specified contagious diseases. The whole idea of 'freedom' means little in an international context; people have got so used to the idea that they can go to the Costa del Sol to party (for example) that they forget that its another country and so subject to another country's rules. Sure, current restrictions may interfere with your right to party but you never had such a right in the first place, it was merely a license tied to your spending habits.

Try posting in a Guardian forum with "Don't take the vaccine because...". The post will disappear almost before you've finished uploading it. It's very heavily censored at the moment but I found it had started to get worse when Corbyn was the Labour leader. It is becoming more and more right-wing. By contrast, I joined the Times on a free trial, so no paywall, and I could post whatever I liked about covid etc provided I did not try to post links to elsewhere on the internet. before the following, there sre a number of statements no reasonable person could disagree with.

Then the writer doesn't even bother with a segue. They just go for it with "What happened in 2020 was merely that 'the other side' used a more conventional form of organization to ensure that the election represented the will of the people. More or less. This might have upset the dark money which is why we're getting such authrotiative sources waxing about 'the 2020 coup' and 'the steal' and so on" – all of which is of course disputed and not by authoritative sources who are all unanimous in their support of Biden's legitimacy. By seriously marginal yet serious sites like this.

'More or less' – Ha! the ultimate "Fuck it, it'll do" fudge.

A bit of a segue, that's all you needed. But you couldn't be arsed. So your talking points are glaring for what they are.

You are not a good writer on evidence; or perhaps a brilliant one stuck in a psyops unit and being sloppy because you view things with contempt.

The ANC is mostly worthless. The ANC conspired to overthrow government from the subverted basis of industrially fundamental bolshevik "socialism" (huge amounts of influence from say, the UK and Israel though, also Russia and China).

And yet, MORONS can't understand that either state capitalism (the sort of shit the ANC pushes, Chinese slaves) or a capitalist state (the sort of shit Switzerland pushes) is worthless. Why? Coz subjugation of citizens, industrial excess.

Both being aspects of the same, fraudulent, degenerate guaranteed failure entropic hegelian dialectic garbage absolutely doomed.

Black people I know here simply don't believe in the ANC, or the DA, or whatever. They know that shit is meaningless, shit, I spoke with a guy from Zimbabwe late 2019 and he was like, ANC is meaningless, Mandela was coerced by Britain.

And the guy reminded me of a "gorilla".

If you don't cooperate for the purpose of comfort (and I mean beyond "fluoride" and shit), advancement, less abuse you are very simply going to hell. Subversive industrial excess with malicious intent is your ticket.

You will never be able to appreciate anything ever again, despite your smile. We're not gonna reset.

On a positive thread, Tucker Carlson (Fox) seems to be breaking from the ranks of the MSM and is now calling for a 'spade'. He spent the time tonight talking about the extreme measures being taken by Canada with mandatory detainment and heavy penalties (prison and hefty fines) for refusal to comply. He openly questioned the motivations of our government through the unnecessary draconian lock downs and a discussion of vaccine passports. He suggested that congress and the President are intentionally trying to bring our economy to it's knees as part of the global reset plan. This is big. The question is whether it is too far along. Comments by John Kerry implied that it's already done. It is refreshing that someone with a large audience is finally pointing out the obvious. Tucker Carlson is now jumping to a web based show through Foxnation.com to continue it. People I know are ready and are looking for organizers. We all want to take to the streets and protest. All at once. But the well orchestrated censorship and social media lock downs are making it difficult to get the word out. I tell people any way I can to read off-guardian. And I do it repeatedly. Try a search for “all holdings blackrock”, “all holdings vanguard”, “all holdings state street corporation”. On a site called holdingschannel dot com, but you can get an idea elsewhere, too.

Anyway, you might notice an enormous amount of overlap and the same sort of interests/inflated value.

What about Moncef Sliaou, Robert Langer and some guys like those? They're also related to that shit, Moderna and whatnot.

Considering Fauci's agency gave Moderna like $1 billion (with the blessings of one guano) ... that's very convenient with him marketing it too, if you recall.

This kinda appropriate for an April 1st mention:

<https://www.fool.com/investing/2020/05/27/fauci-just-singled-out-this-biotech-stock-is-it-a.aspx>

The National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) is of course also funded by b&m gates. Ironical, since vaccines and their toxic shit is what causes most allergies and such.

Considering infectious diseases (in the contagious sense), don't physically exist, that's also kind of an interesting name.

As usual, belief in the bullshit, being the viral contagion (which is mental, and that's assuming you're susceptible).

The world is normally in equilibrium. There is no "single evil power" that is not a reaction to another evil power. All claims to the contrary are a shameless insult to our intelligence and natural instinct! Man must come to understand that he is the master of his destiny.

Sorry, but too many of my fellow-"man" disagree with me (and each other) about what that "destiny" is.

And since you say man is "master of his destiny," I conclude now would be a good time to start panicking!

Destiny or fate? I panicked a loooooong time ago. I don't care to panic anymore. "He who panics first..."

Honestly, I just don't believe in the world and its shit, I mean there are some good things...certainly. But the popularized shit typically isn't. The sort of shit people are conveniently ignorant about. Those typical degenerate factors.

I don't have "survival" worries. You press a .45 against my skull and pull that trigger. The only shot I'll take.

As a warning though, you try make a move and you're DOA.

The Emperor's New Clothes

“Two swindlers arrive at the capital city of an Emperor who spends lavishly on clothing at the expense of state matters.

Posing as weavers, they offer to supply him with magnificent clothes that are invisible to those who are stupid or incompetent.

The emperor hires them, and they set up looms and go to work. A succession of officials, and then the emperor himself, visit them to check their progress.

Each sees that the looms are empty but pretends otherwise to avoid being thought a fool. Finally, the weavers report that the emperor's suit is finished. They mime dressing him and he sets off in a procession before the whole city.

The townsfolk uncomfortably go along with the pretense, not wanting to appear inept or stupid, until a child blurts out that the emperor is wearing nothing at all.

The people then realize that everyone has been fooled.

Although startled, the emperor continues the procession, walking more proudly than ever."

"We might get a hearing if we can bring down the fear level....." Anon.

Here's some clarifications provided by Dr Mike Yeadon during an interview with Frontline Doctors (USA):

"As a general rule variants form very often, routinely, and tend to become less dangerous and more infectious over time, as it comes into equilibrium with it's human host. Variants generally dont become more dangerous.

"No variant differs from the original sequence by more than .3%. In other words, all variants are at least 99.7% identical to the Wuhan sequence.

"It's a fiction, and an evil one at that, that variants are likely to "escape immunity".

"Not only is it intrinsically unlikely – because this degree of similarity of variants means zero chance that an immune person (whether from natural infection or from vaccination) will be made ill by a variant – but it's supported by high quality research.

"The research i refer to shows that people recovering from infection or who have been vaccinated ALL have a wide range of immune cells which recognise ALL the variants.

"Antibodies are probably unimportant in host protection against this virus...there have been a few 'natural experiments', people who unfortunately cannot make antibodies, yet are ably quite successfully to repel this virus. They definitely are better off with antibodies than without. I mention these rare patients because they show that antibodies are not essential to host immunity, so some contrived test in a lab of antibodies and engineered variant do NOT justify needing to top up vaccines.

"Please warn everybody not to go near top-up vaccines, there is absolutely no need of them."

variants are just a different sample taken last winter in wuhan. they are not any newer than the original sample. not a mutation of the virus but just somebody elses cellular debris turned into a computer model of a fantasy virus. everytime they run the computer program it produces a new variant. all of this is just complete bs that would have 'tested' positive for 50 years ago or a thousand years ago. indeed pretty much the whole medical ideology is bs that causes harm.

FAO: MATT HANCOCK, CHRIS WHITTY, PATRICK VALLANCE & NEIL FERGUSON

Served by email at 21:02:21 on 21/02/21.

NOTICE OF INTENDED PRIVATE CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

Dear Sirs,,

RE: R [PUB] v HANCOCK & OTHERS [2021]

You are hereby served NOTICE OF INTENDED PRIVATE CRIMINAL PROSECUTION, in relation to the following charges of fraud by false representation and non-disclosure, pertaining to the statements you and the other defendants made, regarding the purported 'COVID-19 Pandemic'.

SUMMARY OF CHARGES AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS FRAUD BY FALSE REPRESENTATION

For all the elements of fraud by false representation to be in place, under section 2 of the Fraud Act 2006, the following must be proven:

- Party A knowingly relied upon a false statement.
- Party B was caused by Party A to rely on that false statement.
- Party A did so with the intent of causing losses to Party B or for the purposes of procuring material gain.

Upon the evidence, the prosecution alleges that the defendants have knowingly relied and caused Parliament and the British People to rely upon multiple false statements

- a (i) You knowingly and falsely claimed that COVID-19 [SARS-CoV-2] is “the most serious public health threat since the 1918 H1N1 influenza pandemic”.
- (ii) Upon the evidence, the prosecution alleges that statement is plainly false because expert witness testimony and FOI requests show that neither SARS-CoV-2 or COVID-19 have ever been empirically proven to exist and therefore cannot be the cause of a genuine pandemic.
- b (i) You knowingly and falsely claimed that “without the social distancing of the entire population, home isolation of cases and household quarantine of their family members”, 510,000 British people would die from COVID-19.
- (ii) Upon the evidence, the prosecution alleges that it is an indisputable matter of fact that this prediction has been mathematically proven to be false by the expert witness testimony adduced in this case.
- c (i) You knowingly and falsely claimed that the UK Government’s COVID-19 policies “... will need to be maintained until a vaccine becomes available”.
- (ii) Upon the evidence, the prosecution alleges that this statement is demonstrably false, on the ground that an obviously viable alternative was treating the unproven Coronavirus in accordance with pre-existing public policy, without adopting any of the lockdown policies imposed, thereby avoiding the unconscionable suspension of civil liberties and devastating financial losses the taxpayer.

All of these false statements are contained in the summary of the Imperial College Model, written and published by the 4th defendant on 16/03/2020, on the Imperial College website. However, additional evidence shows that the defendants began relying upon the erroneous computer-generated data on or before 01/03/2020, when the COVID-19 Battle Plan was announced by the 1st defendant and quickly implemented by the UK Government, without public scrutiny or meaningful parliamentary debate.

It is alleged that, in causing both Parliament and the British People to rely upon these plainly false statements, the defendants acted dishonestly, knowingly conspiring to maximise ‘vaccination’ uptake in the UK, whatever the cost, in order to secure past and future material gains.

Thereby causing public sector borrowings, charged to the UK taxpayer, to rise to 100.8% of UK GDP [as of 20/11/2020]; and the house arrest of the entire population, which was all done by government diktats, each of which was founded on the plainly dishonest statements contained in the 4th defendant’s fraudulent Imperial College Model, which

Since there are public records which reveal the material gains secured by the defendants' mutual commitments and contributions to the maximisation of 'vaccination' in the UK [and the rest of the world], the prima facie and circumstantial evidence in support of these serious allegations amply demonstrates that all the elements of section 2 fraud by false representation are in place and that the defendants should be indicted as charged.

FRAUD BY NON-DISCLOSURE

For all the elements of fraud by non-disclosure to be in place, under section 3 of the Fraud Act 2006, the following must be proven:

- a. Party A failed to disclose certain information to Party B.
- b. Party A was under a legal duty to disclose that information to Party B.
- c. Party A did so dishonestly, intending, by that failure, to make a gain or cause a loss.

Upon the evidence, the prosecution alleges that the defendants knowingly failed to disclose information you had legal obligations to disclose to both Parliament and the British People, with the intent of maximising 'vaccination' uptake in the UK, in order to secure past and future material gains, at the devastating cost of civil liberties and the solvency of the nation.

- a. You knowingly failed to disclose that the so called science and data relied upon by the World Health Organisation [WHO], in declaring SARS-CoV-2 to be a worldwide 'pandemic' on 11/03/2020, was none other than the discredited Imperial College Model.
- b. You knowingly failed to disclose that SARS-CoV-2 was no longer classified as a High Consequence Infectious Disease on 13/03/2020 – before the 1st defendant presented and commended the Coronavirus Bill 2020 to the House of Commons, on the 19th and 23rd of March 2020, respectively.
- c. You knowingly failed to disclose that the supposed latest science and data you relied upon to justify a declaration of a Public Health Emergency was Neil Ferguson's unscientific Imperial College Model; and that it was known by 24/03/2020 at the latest that said model had been wholly discredited, when the New Scientist published the 4th defendant's admission, before the Parliamentary Committee on Science and Technology, that he had reduced his prediction of 510,000 UK COVID deaths to 20,000, in the event his proposed lockdown policies were not imposed in the UK.
- d. You knowingly failed to disclose that the executive agency the 1st defendant controls, Public Health England [PHE], received $500,000 from the US Government to "fast-track the COVID vaccine", on or around 19/03/2020.

e. You knowingly failed to disclose that multiple WHO approved flu 'vaccines' are known to cause fatal adverse effects in 1 out of every 100,000 healthy adults injected, whilst 'influenza' normally kills around 388 per year. [The ingredients in every UK licensed COVID 'vaccine' are believed to be very similar to these 2019-21 mRNA spiked flu 'vaccines', in which case they will have comparable mortality rates.]

f. You knowingly failed to disclose that none of the 2019-21 flu and COVID jabs are actually vaccines [they are mRNA treatments or gene therapies], which lays open the floodgates to future civil proceedings for misrepresentation, fraud and damages [irrespective of the purported indemnity granted to 'vaccine' companies and those who administer their products in the Coronavirus Act 2020].

g. You knowingly failed to disclose that there is a direct mathematical correlation between the 2020-21 flu and COVID 'vaccine' roll-outs in the UK and the deaths which the defendants claim to be COVID deaths during the same period.

h. You knowingly and dishonestly failed to disclose this information, when you had legal obligation to disclose it to Parliament and the British public, and you did so in service of the maximisation of 'vaccination' uptake in the UK and the rest of the world, for the purposes of securing their own material gains and those of their accomplices, knowing that the cost to the British People and the economy would be catastrophic.

i. You had a legal obligation to disclose these facts to the British People, on the ground that the 1st defendant, upon the advice of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th defendants, pledged on 01/03/2020, in the UK Government's COVID-19 Battle Plan, that: "Public safety is our top priority."

The prosecution alleges that, had public safety been the defendants' top priority, all of the foregoing information would have been disclosed to both Parliament and the British People, as soon as the information became available.

Moreover, in the mind of any reasonable person, knowing this information is essential to understanding that the entirety of the justifications given for declaring a Public Health Emergency were and remain founded on a series of profoundly dishonest statements, which have been relied upon by the defendants.

It naturally follows that the public disclosure of the information described, by either the 1st, 2nd or 3rd defendant at the UK Government's daily press briefing, on or

Furthermore, the public disclosure of 8 e could and should have resulted in the suspension of the National Influenza Immunisation Programme and a thorough investigation of the allegedly lethal WHO approved mRNA spiked flu 'vaccines', which are considered all too similar to the substance of the COVID jabs subsequently licensed by the UK Government for mass administration.

However, it naturally follows that, without a 'Public Health Emergency', it would not have been possible for the defendants to cause the lockdown of the nation "until a vaccine is found", with the fatally flawed advice you gave in your official capacities as Secretary of State for Health & Social Care, Chief Medical Officer, Chief Scientific Officer and the WHO and UK Government's Senior Scientific Advisor on Pandemic Preparedness, Policy and Response.

The data-based evidence adduced by the prosecution also shows that, on the balance of probabilities, the vast majority of the deaths recorded as COVID deaths since September 2020, were, in reality, fatal adverse events, caused by the 2020-21 WHO and UK Government approved flu and COVID shots, in addition to those who died at home, in care homes and hospitals, who were denied palliative care "to save the NHS" from and "flatten the curve" of a 'virus' which has never been proven to exist.

Upon the evidence, the defendants committed section 3 fraud by non-disclosure, under the provisions of the Fraud Act 2006, on the basis that you knowingly and dishonestly failed to disclose information you had legal obligations to disclose to both Parliament and the British People, which you could and should have done in the House of Commons, as well as during the UK Government's media briefings, at various times from 01/03/2020 to the present day, when you had ample opportunities to make public safety their top priority by fully availing Parliament and the British People of the latest science and data, as you repeatedly pledged to do, without ever actually delivering it.

Since there are public records which reveal the material gains secured by the defendants' mutual commitments and contributions to the maximisation of 'vaccination' in the UK [and the rest of the world], the prima facie and circumstantial evidence relied upon in support of these criminal allegations amply demonstrates that all the elements of section 3 fraud by non-disclosure are in place and that the defendants should be indicted as charged.

URGENT APPLICATIONS BEFORE THE COURT

Given the unbridled seriousness of the allegations made, the prosecution is applying for summonses to be issued against the defendants without delay, to be you appear before a judge to plead - for the case is listed to be heard by a jury at the earliest opportunity.

A second application seeks a declaration, under the inherent jurisdiction of the court to act in the name of justice, that:

a. Upon the prima facie evidence adduced and in accordance with the opinion of Lord Sumption that the Coronavirus Act 2020 is constitutionally unlawful and therefore void and unenforceable, it is declared that, in the interests of providing finality to the families of those who are recorded as having died from or with COVID-19 and for the purposes of providing evidence in R [PUB] v Matt Hancock & Others, autopsies must be carried out and death certificates certified as if the 2020 Act had not been enacted.

b. For a period of at least 90 days, all flu and COVID 'vaccinations' are suspended, pending further criminal investigations into the allegation that the treatments concerned kill a minimum of 377 out of every 100,000 healthy adults injected.

For the avoidance of doubt, these proceedings are being brought in the absence of parliamentary, police or parliamentary intervention, without ill will, frivolity, vexation or malice, under the protection of the Treaty of Universal Community Trust.

"From Plato's organization of his Academy and efforts to shape a Philosopher King to beat the forces of the Persian Empire,[...] to Augustine's battles to save the soul of Christianity all the way to our present age, conspiracies for the good and counter-conspiracies for evil have shaped history."

Wait, what? The savior for the "soul of Christianity" is neo-platonist, mystic-statist Augustine, who may very well be considered the intellectual father of the inquisition and who's writings paved the way for protestant tyrants like John Calvin; the same guy who wrote that man is deformed, squalid, tainted with ulcers and sores and his existence is a hellish, rotted life, his mind helpless, and his body lust-ridden and that such a creature's only moral existence is renunciation: the abandon of reason and the subordination of self-value; and that humility is only achieved when man fully grasps his utter worthlessness? That Augustine?

In Australia, the noose tightens

“The Queen’s Land Premier confirmed that the state government’s Check In Qld app will be mandated for most hospitality businesses from May 1, 2021.”

Interesting to note that the Qld Premier’s father, Henry Palaszczuk, is head of the GTA Foundation (gene technology foundation) which specialises in “massive storage of genetic data where the combination of genomics and emerging IT technologies such as artificial intelligence, cloud computing, big data and block-chain can create huge power.”

The hospitality businesses are the Thin End of The Wedge...Little by little, catchie monkey ...rope ‘em in slowly...stealth...then it’s mandatory – for access everywhere...

As only a small percentage of Australians fly Overseas, vax passports- for all is overkill...

But if you can remember the Soviet Union: you needed a pass to be able to leave your district / town to visit a neighbouring district / town...The 'passports – for – all' make sense if intention is to restrict your movements WITHIN Australia..

.And they're already getting us used to interstate border controls (Closing the borders)...

Its sad but true, the entire human race walks straight into an slaughter house and manages to put on the shakles by them selfs and condemns us all by the virtue of just one thing, its ironic but true, the lack of balls.

I dont meant to be anrgy, I am not, just disapointed, when we never tuch the real problem, we end up running in circles, chasing our own tail, witch is exactly what they want us to do, the entire meaning of this balet of absurdity is just that, keep us distracted and occupied with meaningless drivell.

WE are run by an parasitic entity so wast and powerful, that right now they are going in full force, why do you think I use the two terms, all wars are bankers wars, and who controls the banks.

If you dont know about that by now, well, I pity you, ignorance isnt an bliss, ignorance is the certain step to doom.

Why Ehret calls Freedland, who has enough baggage of her own, a Nazi or neo-Nazi is beyond me. Yes, Freedland's grandfather may have worked for the NSDAP, but that doesn't make her any more a Nazi than me being an alcoholic because of my grandfather being one. For someone who generally has a good grip on the globalist initiative, Ehret and his ilk still buy into the obligatory Hollow-co$† fairy tale propagated by the globalists. Ironically, if he had done any honest research on the NSDAP or fascism, he would understand they were opposed to globalism and the usurious international banking cartel that is behind the globalist WEF.

What we really need now is solutions as to how we overcome this unfolding tyranny.

It's becoming increasingly clear that the British government are following a 'zero covid' policy which is just a smokescreen for the imminent arrival of these vaccine passports, bio surveillance state, coerced regular vaccination etc.

I know there are groups like StopCommonPass and Big Brother Watch that are trying valiantly to stop this but it's obvious the government are going to do it anyway.

One of my lines in the sand is no contact tracing; along with no tests and no jab. I won't back down or compromise on these things. Because if I did, then I would have to live with my conscience.

"There is little we can really do except hunker down and prepare". Correct.

I caught 4 trains and 2 buses to and from work today. On all those trips, I only spotted about 5 others without facemasks on. And it really hit home that there will be no large scale resistance in Australia. There will be no concerted pushback.

The large majority will blindly go along with this fascism, because most here are either hopelessly brainwashed or they are spineless cowards who will go along with this so not to make waves.

An unpublished letter-to-the- editor sent to an Australian national daily on 19 September 2001:

"the Editor, i have it on no greater authority than Sherlock Holmes that the sinister, shadowy genius, the mastermind wreaking all this havoc from his secret hide-out in a far-off place is none other than Moriarty, (signed)*

I sometimes thought that having a mysterious figure lurking in the background in some of the Sherlock stories made them a bit more thrilling...

Governments are gonna have difficulty defining “conspiracy theories” as a major spreader of conspiracy theories is Murdoch’s major Australian daily newspaper... The Greens are the new Reds...it’s opinionistas often can find evidence of the hidden hand of The Greens in every thing that’s wrong in the country...And then there’s that cabal of militant union members behind every strike...And then there’s that sinister Putin, another standard lynchpin to many reports.

To come up with a definition of ‘terrorist’ that could not be applied to it’s own actions, governments decided only ‘non-state’ actors were terrorists. How will Murdochs papers not be caught in the dragnet to catch all those conspiracy theory spreaders ?

My friends, there is an army of Mossad agents who sole mission is to flood the world with disinformation. The purpose is to obscure that the most important “conspiracy” theory is the 911 attacks.

It was these blatant attacks along with the Anthrax release that has got us where we are today.

The thing is the 911 attacks are obvious false flag operations. And the players who were behind it showed their hands.

911 is the place to start to find the truly murderous scum that are behind our present situation.

Is it time we had a discussion about the loose use of the term 'disinformation'? Loose, because most of what is described by it is misinformation...

Disinformation describes a tactic...It's not about true or false information but about how information is used, to what purpose...It's purpose is to sow confusion, to cause you to exclaim "I don't know what to believe!!"... In which case it has achieved your inaction, as you won't act if you're uncertain...

it was best summed up – as a tactic- by the USA tobacco industry in 1969:

"Doubt is our product since it is the best means of competing with "the body of fact" that exists in the mind of the general public"

You got a better definition? (and remember what Orwell said about allowing readymade phrases to colonise your mind...)

That was J. Edgar Hoover when confronted with the case that a Mafia existed by his own agents.

Anyone interested in the topic might find these fruitful avenues of research: 1) Where does the term "Mafia" come from? 2) The only senior law enforcement officer who took the existence of a Mafia seriously before the late 1950s was Petrosini in the 1890s – what happened to him? 3) What other organisations have codes of silence like the Mafia
